S.R.O. 427.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of the use and occupation of out-houses attached to bungalows within the Cantonment of Kamptee, made by the Cantonment Board, Kamptee, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (28) and (39) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published, approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYELAWS FOR THE REGULATION OF THE USE AND OCCUPATION OF OUT-HOUSES ATTACHED TO BUNGALOWS WITHIN THE CANTONMENT OF KAMPTEE.

1. In these Bye-laws, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

- (a) "bungalow" means a bungalow having out-houses; and
- (b) "out-houses" means quarters built within the compound of a bungalow with the express intention of providing accommodation for the servants of the occupier of the bungalow or his mali, sweeper or chowkidar and the families of such servants, mali, sweeper and chowkidar.

2. With the exception of the bungalow or out-houses, no other building in the compound shall be used for residential purposes.

3. No out-houses in an occupied bungalow shall be occupied by persons other than the bona fide servants of the occupier of the bungalow and their families.

4. No out-houses of an un-occupied bungalow shall be in occupation of any person, other than the mali, sweeper and chowkidar of the bungalow and their families and the names of such persons shall be reported by the owner to the Executive Officer.

5. If a bungalow is divided or let out in separate portions, the out-houses shall be proportionately occupied only by the occupiers' servants whose names shall be forwarded to the Executive Officer by their employers.

6. If the occupier of a bungalow or portion thereof, has more out-houses than he requires, the occupier or the owner shall not let on hire the vacant out-houses to any person without the previous sanction of the Cantonment Board.

7. A contravention of any of these bye-laws shall, on conviction by a Magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and, in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
